DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to Applicant's Request for Continued Examination (RCE) and reconsideration filed on December 21, 2005. Claims 1-10 are under prosecution in this application.

Response to Applicant's amendment

2. Applicants' amendment filed on December 21, 2005 have been fully considered, and discussed in the next section below or within the following rejections are not deemed to be persuasive. Applicants' request for allowance is respectfully denied.

3. The Examiner acknowledges Applicant's amendment to claims 1, 9 and 10, and therefore withdraws the previous office action rejection regarding 35 U.S.C. § 101 non-statutory subject matter. Applicant's remaining traversals are discussed below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1, and 3-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Case et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,734,890) as discussed in paragraph 7 of the previous office action mailed on July 27, 2005. Further,

Case teaches the step of presenting the compared user defined strategic options to allow the user to determine which of said user defined strategic options best predict satisfaction of each of said customer desired outcomes (column 20, lines 2-15).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent May not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 148 USPQ 459, that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or unobviousness.

8. Claims 2, and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Case et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,734,890) in view of Gartner Group Executive Services "Executive Market Analysis Program" (EMAP pp. 11-36) as discussed in paragraph 10 of the previous office action mailed on July 27, 2005.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's amendment to claims 1, 9 and 10 has been fully considered and does overcome the previous office action rejection regarding 35 U.S.C. § 101 non-statutory subject matter, however, the amendment does not overcome the previous office action rejections regarding 35 U.S.C. § 102 and § 103. The added limitations have been addressed under 35 U.S.C. § 102 and § 103 rejections above.
